THIS MONTH'S OFFERS

Our Way of Saying Thank You

We want the best for our customers...always! Our constant endeavor to innovate and customize our solutions and offerings have yielded mutually benefitting results.

We have lined up 2 exciting offers just for you to show our appreciation for your continued support and partnership:

1. Free Scorecard: The free model review report gives insights into "Model Health check" & enables you to prioritize decisions, allowing you and your organization to re-calibrate & align on Anaplan initiatives that are necessary for meeting your organizational goals.
2. New UX: The NEW Anaplan UX has some revolutionary capabilities such as the ability to connect multiple models, reusable templates, new modal forms for data input, simpler navigation, and personalized experience. Scanomi will help you transition to the NEW UX for a nominal special fee.

WEBINARS

Knowledge Shared is Knowledge Squared

The webinars came into being when we were contemplating many new ideas and solutions that may help our existing customers and new during COVID. We stumbled upon a few relevant webinars online that provided us with the right vision and direction along with a set of tools and techniques to implement our ideas and solutions effectively. We soon realized that Scanomi's solutions and offerings would add more value if we were to educate and create awareness about them. Thereon, we have successfully hosted 3 different webinars and continue to plan for new ones.

You can request for a webinar topic that you want featured in one of our upcoming webinars by emailing at alex@scanomi.com
