GOOGLE CLOUD PARTNERSHIP

A Major Milestone

Scanomi is on Cloud Nine...Google Cloud to be precise! Having toiled hard and contributed extensively in the Supply Chain space, we were on the lookout for a partner who shares the same passion and innovative stint as us to serve our Supply Chain customers better. With Google's best in class infrastructure and platform, together with Scanomi's deep expertise in Supply Chain solutions, our partnership was in the waiting to happen.

With this partnership, you will now have access to Google's Supply Chain Twin and Supply Chain Pulse, both revolutionary capabilities that will propel growth & solve your most critical business problems. More info in the link below:

NEW WEBSITE & BRANDING

Reinforcing our Vision & Mission Commitment

We are thrilled to announce that our NEW Website & Branding is now LIVE at www.scanomi.com. Some of the great new features of our new website are:

- Navigation is simpler.
- Accessing information is a breeze.
- Browsing experience & performance are superior.
- Requesting services is easier.

When we designed & developed our NEW Website, you and our partnership were at the core for what we envisioned to achieve. With the NEW Website & Branding, we re-enforce our trust and reliability as your trusted partner & solution provider.

WEBINAR

Margin Mgmt. via Supply Chain Efficiencies

We recently hosted a webinar on Margin Mgmt. via Supply Chain Efficiencies. The following were the takeaways from the webinar:

- Improve demand accuracy & supply planning to lower inventory costs.
- Enhance supplier collaboration.
- Mitigate inventory clearance promotions for maximum profitability.
- Increase visibility to required inventory levels.
- Margin based analysis to identify profit/cost of every product.
- LIVE Demo of all of the above.
